

Good morning, Spring-Ford. Today is Monday, March 27th. Today is a day 3.

Today is a Health classroom day. Go to your Health classroom for class today.

All of Mrs. Glossner's science classes should report to Computer Lab E264 for class today.

On Friday, Mrs. Rotondo's reading classes took part in a Breakout Room as a culminating activity for the novel The Hobbit. Here is a power point to show the results of the classes that took part. Please stand by for the power point.

We now turn the announcements over to Mrs. Croll who is going to present an award for the Science Fair.
